

British Columbia Rifle Association

2022 Target Rifle Championship Program

Match Conditions

ICFRA Target Rifle rules will apply.

Due to the current situation at General Vokes Range in Chilliwack the 2022 the BC Target Rifle Championship will not be conducted as a single stand-alone event. It will be instead consist of an aggregate of scores fired at various regional and club events shot throughout the shooting season. Some of the matches may also have other ranges fired as part of the club or regional event which will not be included in the Provincial Championship.

There will be a short range, mid-range and long range component to this championship. From our collection of perpetual trophy's one will be awarded for each component and awarded at the event. For the short range the trophies will be awarded after the completion of the 2nd event on June 5th.

There will be both Individual and Team events in this program. Please fill out the entry form when you make your entry payment and forward a copy the match director at: bcratr-match@bc rifle.org

Membership

Membership in the BCRA will be a requirement for this event. Please refer to the BCRA website for the appropriate form and fees. Currently this is $20.00 for senior members.

Event Entry Fees

The entry fee is to be collected directly via our website pay pal payment system and is in addition to the match fee charged by the club. At the discretion of the local club match director the BCRA Provincial Championship fee can also be submitted with a completed entry form and separate payment at the local event.

Each component is a stand-alone event with a separate fee and you may enter any or all parts. However to be eligible for the grand aggregate awards you must enter all the events prior to the start of the competition of the Short Range Aggregate which is May 8th 2022 in Mission.
